

FOOD FORWARD Invites You To a Book Launch Celebration and Fundraiser for the release of “Golden States of Grace: Prayers of the Disinherited,” the new book by Rick Nahmias

A photo-documentary examining faith on the margins

“Golden States of Grace’ brings together such depth and diversity of faith and humanity, that it is seems three-dimensional. It is hard to think of another body of work which looks so compassionately at the faces and voices of disinherited peoples while asking us to think deeply about and how we own or disown those on the margins. This is a book for anyone who has ever felt left out, pushed out, or just wondered what it feels like to be on the outside - that is, a book for all of us.”

-Sister Helen Prejean, Author “Dead Man Walking”

Saturday October 2nd, 2010 4:30-7pm

The UCLA Religious Conference
900 Hilgard Avenue, 1st Floor
Westwood, CA 90024

Refreshments will be served

50% from the sale of all paperback copies sold during the event will go directly to benefit Food Forward

Admission is free, but a RSVP to 818-530-4125 or marie@foodforward.org is requested

Food Forward is an LA-based non-profit whose mission is to reconnect our community with the abundance of food present in our everyday lives, while creating change around issues of urban hunger, food waste and food justice Foodforward.org

